Title of the Programme	COSMED XI 2025
Date, Time & Venue	8-10 September 2025 10:30 AM to 1:00 PM SEAMEO RECSAM
Trainer/Facilitator and Institution	Dr Bala Murali Tanimale, Ms Sivaranjini Sinniah & Dr Shamimah Parveen Abd Rahim
Programme Overview	COSMED XI 2025, organised by SEAMEO RECSAM, focuses on "Navigating STEM Education in a BANI World." The BANI framework—Brittleness, Anxiety, Non-linearity, and Incomprehensibility—highlights challenges in modern education. Brittleness exposes the fragility of traditional learning models, requiring adaptability. Anxiety emphasises the need for emotional intelligence and supportive environments. Non-linearity calls for flexible, interdisciplinary learning to address complex problems. Incomprehensibility underscores the importance of computational thinking and clear instruction. COSMED XI aims to reshape STEM education through collaboration, preparing learners to navigate an unpredictable, interconnected world with resilience and critical thinking.
Key Learning Outcomes	COSMED XI explores the BANI framework in STEM education, focusing on resilient systems, emotional well-being, adaptability, and personalized learning. It aims to simplify complex concepts, foster innovation, and build collaborative networks, ensuring educators and learners can navigate challenges and embrace transformative, inclusive, and future-ready STEM education practices.
Why should you attend?	COSMED XI 2025 addresses the need to transform STEM education for a BANI world. It highlights resilience, emotional intelligence, and innovative problem-solving to navigate brittleness, anxiety, non-linearity, and incomprehensibility. The conference fosters collaboration to equip learners with technical, critical, and adaptive skills for an unpredictable, interconnected future.
